
DIRECTORY OF ESL COURSES IN BRITISH COLUMBIA 2004

Produced by ELSA Net with financial assistance from
The Ministry of Community, Aboriginal & Women's Services

Please note

All schools, agencies and institutions listed in this directory provided information to the Project Researcher or Volunteer either by mail, e-mail, fax or telephone. The information was collected in as careful a manner as possible. However, mistakes or omissions may still have occurred in the collection and editing of information. Also, as schools, courses and fees do change, it is the responsibility of the reader to contact individual language training providers to find the course and school that best suit their needs. ELSA Net disclaims any liability in connection with the use of the information in this directory.

Thank you

We wish to acknowledge the efforts of the many people who have made this directory possible.

Earlier editions of the directory covered the Greater Vancouver area. They were prepared in 1996, 1998 and 2001 by Immigrant Services Society of BC under the guidance of Jerry Wu and with the help of volunteers Ben Y.H. Lau, Michelle Lee and Arti D. Tewari.

The project to produce a 2003 edition of the directory by updating the 2001 edition and expanding it to cover all of British Columbia was carried out by ELSA Net, with Brenda Lohrenz as Project Manager and Teresa Gray as Project Researcher. Assistance was provided by an advisory committee and the volunteer work of Arti D. Tewari.

The directory was printed by Westwood Printing of Coquitlam under the guidance of Shenaz Kassam and Ferdinand Castillo.

The 2003 edition and the 2004 update have been made possible with the support and funding of the Settlement and Multiculturalism Branch of the Ministry of Community, Aboriginal and Women's Services.

MESSAGE TO STUDENTS

- This directory was made to help newcomers to British Columbia to find English language training or upgrading that suits their needs. It includes courses at public and private colleges and universities, public school boards, private ESL schools, community agencies and churches. It can also be helpful to international students or visitors to Canada who want to study English.
- Many schools have websites. There is much more information on the websites than in this directory. If you don't know how to use the internet, you can learn for free at a public library. You may have friends that can help you too.
- Remember that schools, programs, courses and fees can change. It is your responsibility to check with the individual school you are interested in before registering.
- You may be eligible for the free ELSA (English Language Services for Adults) Program for newcomers. Information is in the ELSA Program Section.
- The English language training providers that are listed are organized by region in British Columbia. Within the Lower Mainland region, they are further organized by municipality or city.
- There is an index for courses with free tuition and courses with child-minding.
- We have given tuition fees according to hourly rates. The categories are: Free, $3/hour or less, $4 - $8/hour, and $9/hour or more.
- You can find printable maps and directions for addresses in BC on the My Telus website at www.mytelus.com/maps/index.jsp. For Lower Mainland public transit maps, schedules and trip planning, visit www.translink.bc.ca or call Translink at (604) 953-3333.

Enjoy your English learning!!

ABOUT CANADIAN LANGUAGE BENCHMARKS (CLB)

The Canadian Language Benchmarks Assessment determines three areas of language ability: listening/speaking, reading, and writing. Each of these skill areas has eight levels of competency called Benchmarks.

Benchmarks are used to determine a student's level in the ELSA program.

Some schools in the directory describe the level of their non-ELSA courses using Benchmarks or "CLB" numbers. These are helpful for the student because Benchmarks are a standard measure. For more information about CLB levels, visit the Centre for Canadian Language Benchmarks website at www.language.ca/bench.html.

- Some language training providers with non-ELSA courses have given information about child-minding in this directory. They are listed below. Be sure to read the whole listing. Some child-minding is free; some is not. Sometimes it is only for a specific class. Call the school for more information.
